Wednesday, 7th October 2026

Dear students,

We warmly welcome you to ABCISMUN'26! Last year we had an incredible turnout of over 60 students and we are excited to make this year's conference even bigger.

The event will take place from Saturday, 31st October to Sunday, 1st November (Saturday: 8:30am-4:30pm and Sunday: 8:30am-3:45pm). Please see below the schedule for timings.

Whether you are a seasoned public speaker or completely new to MUN, there is a place for you. We strongly encourage everyone to get involved, develop your leadership and diplomacy skills and be part of a great weekend at The ABCIS. Don't miss out on this fantastic opportunity: sign up using the links.

The event will be formal, business attire. All food and drink will be included. Please make sure you are collected promptly at the end of each day.

Here are the three ways you can participate:

Delegates

Delegates are the heart of the conference. You will represent an assigned country, draft resolutions and debate pressing global issues. Many of you are skilled debaters and we want your voice in the committees.

Cost: 700,000 VND - pay in cash to the office by Friday 16th October. This covers all food and conference materials.

Chairs (10 spots available)

Chairs play an essential role in creating a productive and engaging committee environment by guiding debate, supporting delegates and ensuring discussions remain focused and respectful. We encourage enthusiastic students ready to take on a leadership role to apply.

Cost: Chair registration is half price (350,000 VND) as a gesture of our appreciation. Pay in cash to the office by Friday 16th October.

You will need to attend one after school Chair training session. Dates will be confirmed later.

Admins (10 spots available)

Admins are the backbone of the conference operations. They ensure the weekend runs smoothly by handling logistics, passing amendments, assisting chairs and keeping the committee rooms organised. This is a perfect role if you are interested in MUN and want to see how it works behind the scenes, enjoy watching debates or simply want to contribute to a major school event. Free food and snacks provided across both days of the conference. You will need to attend a short training session during a lunchtime.
